

2013 TEACHER OF THE YEAR
BUILDING LEVEL NOMINATION FORM
Caesar Rodney School District

The Caesar Rodney School District supports the broadest participation in selecting the Building Level Teacher of The Year Nominees. Therefore, administrators, staff members, parents, students and community leaders are encouraged to participate in our annual selection of the BUILDING LEVEL TEACHER OF THE YEAR NOMINEE for your school. If you wish to nominate a teacher in another school, please feel free to duplicate this form or pick one up at any school in the District or the Administrative Office.

Candidates for consideration should:

- be the best representatives of the teaching profession and use the best teaching practices.
- be an exceptionally dedicated, knowledgeable, and skilled teacher.
- have the respect and admiration of students, parents, and colleagues.
- play active and useful roles in their communities as well as in their schools.
- be poised, articulate and possess the energy and composure to be able to withstand a busy schedule.
- have the superior ability to inspire students of all backgrounds and abilities to learn.
- be skillful and dedicated teachers, pre-kindergarten through grade 12, who plan to continue as teachers the following school year.

The finalists will be rated on their educational background, philosophy of teaching, teaching performance, interactions with students, and enthusiasm for teaching. Each finalist will be observed by a committee of administrators, teachers, parents, and School Board members.

Directions: Please complete this nomination form and return it to either your nominee's school building's main office or to the District Office.
